This document is Part 1 of the FSG. This document, together with Part 2 of the FSG the "RIAA Advisor Profile" makes up the Financial Services Guide.

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) contains important information about Risk and Investment Advisors Australia Pty Ltd (RIAA) and the financial services we offer through our Representatives.

The purpose of this FSG is to assist you in deciding whether to use the services we offer. It sets out information about:

- The Financial services that we may offer you;
- How we at RIAA are paid;
- Any potential conflict of interest we may have; and
- How to access our internal dispute resolution procedures if you have a complaint.

Whenever our Representative gives you personal financial advice our Representative will provide you with a Statement of Advice (SOA) which contains the advice, the basis on which it was given and information on fees, commissions and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice.

If our Representative provides further advice to you and your personal circumstances have not significantly changed, and that further advice is related to the advice we provided to you in a previous Statement of Advice and we do not give that further advice to you in writing, you may request a copy of the record of that further advice at any time up to 7 years from the date our Representative gave the further advice to you.

You can request the record of advice by contacting the representative or us in writing or by telephone or by email.

Whenever our Representative makes a personal recommendation to acquire a particular financial product, our Representative will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which contains information about the particular product to assist you to make an informed decision about that product.

Our Representative will also give you a PDS if you ask them to sell you a particular financial product or ask them to arrange to issue a particular product.

This FSG has been authorised by RIAA.

RIAA has access to specialist advice on Tax Planning, Estate Planning, Shares, Investments, General Insurance, Mortgage providers, SMSF administration and MDA operators.

Where required, these areas will be provided only by referral. Whether you use one of our referrals or a professional that you currently have an involvement with, they will be responsible for the advice provided to you.

If you require advice on a wider range of products or complex issues we may refer you to another financial services provider.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO YOU

RIAA will:

- Only advise within RIAA's approved product list.
- Deal in a financial product if directed but only with your approval.
- Take instructions from you.
- Consider tax issues but not provide personal tax advice.
- Not ask you to sign blank documents.
- Provide you with a Fee Disclosure Statement each year

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO US

RIAA expects that you will:

- Tell us about your personal objectives, current financial situation and any other relevant information so we can offer you the most appropriate advice. If you do not, the advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.
- Update us annually with any changes in your personal situation.
- Not sign blank forms.
- Use our advice to make your decision(s) about acquiring financial product(s).

WHAT INFORMATION IS MAINTAINED IN YOUR FILE AND IS IT KEPT SECURE?

RIAA will maintain a record of your personal profile including details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to examine your file please contact us.

RIAA is committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. RIAA's Privacy Statement is available on request, or you may access it on RIAA's website at www.riaa.net.au.

HOW DO YOU GIVE INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT YOUR INVESTMENT?

You may tell our adviser how you would like to give them instructions. For example, by telephone, fax or other means such as email.

HOW MUCH WILL YOU PAY FOR THE SERVICE PROVIDED?

The RIAA Adviser Profile contains information detailing fees and commissions as well as other benefits that our adviser may receive for the services that our adviser provides and that RIAA receives.

There are various modes of payment for the services provided. You may either be charged a set fee, an hourly rate or our adviser may receive fees and/or commissions directly from the financial product issuer whose products are recommended to you.

If you receive personal advice from our adviser, our adviser will provide you with a Statement of Advice (SOA) which tells you the amount of any commissions, fees and other benefits that are paid to any person as a result of your decision to use our services which may influence the advice our adviser gave you. If they do not know the amount, the (SOA) will tell you how the commissions, fees and other benefits are calculated. Before our adviser can proceed to act on your instructions you must sign the SOA authorising our adviser to implement the recommendations.

If they recommend a financial product the issuer of that product will receive a benefit which may be in the form of a premium, entry fee or management fee. This will be fully explained in the relevant Product Disclosure statement.

WILL ANYONE BE PAID FOR REFERRING ME TO YOU?

Where you have been referred to your adviser or RIAA by someone else, and if we pay them a fee or commission for that referral, we will tell you in the Statement of Advice the amount of any fee or commission paid. Part 2 (Adviser Profile) will also disclose information about any payment made for referrals by your adviser.

ARE THERE ANY CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN OUR ADVICE?

RIAA receives the following payments, in addition to the initial and ongoing fees and/or commissions from the following fund managers:

Product Provider	Level of Payment
Asgard Personal Choice	Asgard Personal Choice, an amount up to 45% of the administration fee is payable which, after expenses including the production of PDS, distributes the balance to RIAA
IIOF	IIOF pay a sponsor Fee of up to 0.20% of Funds Under Advice for existing business prior to 1/7/2014.
Personal Choice Private	Risk And Investment Advisors Australia Pty Ltd and your adviser, may hold a share in RIAA Pty Ltd which is a company that in turn holds a share in Personal Choice Management Pty Ltd (PCM). PCM is the sponsor of the Personal Choice Private (PCP) product offered in the PCP/Asgard Product Disclosure Document. PCM receives a fee for such sponsorship based on a formula which relates to the funds under management. PCM is not the Dealer of the PCP product for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 and does not provide any financial advice regarding the PCP product offered. PCM shareholders are entitled to receive a dividend/capital payment based on the success of the Company which is not related to the returns or performance of clients' capital. Your Adviser is entitled to receive a dividend payment from RIAA Pty Ltd for any existing business written prior to 1/7/2014. Any new business written post 30/6/2014, the dividend will be used to offset adviser business expenses.
Synergy	Synergy pay up to 26.67% per annum of the minimum Administration Fee on Funds Under Advice for existing business prior to 1/7/2014.
Wealthtrac	These payments are based on the total value of business submitted to Wealthtrac. The total payments will not exceed 0.583% of funds under management. This relates to existing business prior to 1/7/2014.

RIAA also receives a Bonus from the following:

Product Provider	Level of Payment
